DIARY NOTES

DD/S WL

15 February 1963

25X1A9a

1. I telephoned [REDACTED] to say that I had noted in the papers that the Civil Service Commission had issued their regulation on quality within-grade raises and requested that the Office of Personnel move promptly to prepare an Agency regulation.

2. I talked with [REDACTED] about the Agency's share of the counter-insurgency course being run by the Department of State, now estimated to be [REDACTED]

for Fiscal Year 1963 and [REDACTED] for Fiscal Year 1964. 25X1A
With [REDACTED] approval, [REDACTED] was authorized to say that the Agency 25X1A9a was opposed in principle to being billed for this course and that, while we would take care of it in some way for Fiscal Year 1963, we would make no commitments for Fiscal Year 1964.

4. I talked with [REDACTED] about the likelihood that [REDACTED] would not 25X1A9a attend the War College. I asked him to get the necessary clearances on the alternates so that they would be fully eligible to go. (At the same time, I do not wish to withdraw Jack right away.)
